

U.S. Army Wounded Warrior Program (AW2) Assistance with Pay and Financial Benefits

How can AW2 assist with pay and financial benefits?

AW2 Soldiers and Veterans often face a number of pay and financial benefits issues during and after their recovery. Every AW2 Advocate works directly with AW2 Soldiers, Veterans and Families to improve the accuracy and the timeliness of pay. AW2 Advocates are the first point of contact for all pay and financial benefits questions and concerns, and they can work with the appropriate Army, Department of Defense (DoD) and Veterans Affairs (VA) programs to resolve issues.

How does the AW2 Advocate Support Branch (ASB) assist with pay and financial benefits?

AW2 Advocates work closely with a team of finance experts in the AW2 Advocate Support Branch. These individuals are well versed in policies and the mechanisms of Soldier and Veteran pay and benefits systems, such as Combat-Related Special Compensation \(CRSC\) and travel claims. To help the AW2 Advocates, the ASB created a checklist to identify issues that must be addressed to ensure a smooth transition to civilian life or continuation of
